Summer is here! If you'd like to know more about what's edible just outside your doorstep, come join Emily Alexander and Slow Food CNY on a wild edible and medicinal plants walk!

Join us at Baltimore Woods on Saturday, July 9 and learn basic identification, traditional uses and lots more about so-called common plants! You'll never look at 'weeds' the same way again!

This event is free and open to the public. Remember to wear weather appropriate clothes and shoes for walking as we will be walking to different points around Baltimore Woods.

Register at www.library.marcellusny.com or by phone at 673-3221. The program will last about an hour with refreshments provided at the 1 p.m. Baltimore Woods' art gallery reception. Baltimore Woods is located at 4007 Bishop Hill Rd, Marcellus, NY 13108.
